Message

I am happy to learn that Mrs. Helena Kaushik Women's College, Malsisar, Jhunjhunu, Rajasthan is celebrating its first anniversary and a Musical Concert has been arranged for the above purpose at New York.

It is also heartening to see that during the one year of its existence, the College was able to achieve excellent results.

Education is the basic remedy for all social ills. All social reformers in our country have been laying great stress on the need for imparting education, particularly to the womenfolk, to bring about social reforms and eradication of all social evils. As a result of their tireless efforts and measures taken by the Government since Independence, a great awakening has taken place through the length and breadth of the country and now we find that many of the womenfolk are in the forefront in every walks of life. With a view to achieve the goal of Literacy for all, the Government has taken several important steps and the day is not far off when we will be able to achieve our goal.

I am also happy to find that the College has ambitious plans for expansion to provide modern facilities and access to latest knowledge to its students so that they can contribute for the betterment of our people.

On this happy occasion, I congratulate the Founder and Managing Trustee of Mrs. Helena Kaushik Women's College, Malsisar, Jhunjhunu, Rajasthan and wish the College many more jubilees. I wish their first anniversary Celebrations as well as the Music Concert all success.

Dear Dr. Kaushik,

Thank you very much for your kind invitation to attend a musical concert on October 28, 2000 in New York. While I would have loved to be present to lend my support to your very valuable contribution to Jhunjhunu and Rajasthan, which remains dear to me, I have to unfortunately regret my inability to attend due to my other commitments. Kindly accept my best wishes for a memorable event and success in your venture. I notice that you have been able to manage an array of some brilliant performers.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

MESSAGE

Really the time has come to wholeheartedly congratulate the management of the Mrs. Helena Kaushik Women's College of Rajasthan in India as it is going to celebrate its First Anniversary at New York in the United State of America (USA).

Probably, it will be first time in the history of the nation that a institution of this land is observing its annual function in abroad.

The excellent achievement achieved by the College on education front is a praiseworthy one. The College would be observing its anniversary in New York on October 28 and 29.

I, once again, am extending our greetings to the College for organising such a grand show in the land of America.

MESSAGE

India has made tremendous progress in eradicating illiteracy from the country. By making primary education as fundamental right of every child, we hope to achieve 100 per cent literacy. At the higher level of education also, our nation figures prominently in educational map of the world. Colleges and educational institutions in the private sector have made substantial contribution in achieving this performance.

I am glad to know that Mrs. Helena Kaushik Women's College, Malsisar, Rajasthan is celebrating its first anniversary by organizing a musical show at the New York Society for Ethical Culture, New York on October 28, 2000 in which prominent masters of the Indian classical music are participating. I compliment the management of the college on this occasion and wish them all success in their endeavors.
